

INDIANA GPS: PROPOSED K-8 HEADLINE INDICATORS

Based on comprehensive research, analysis and input from a broad range of stakeholders, the Indiana Department of Education proposes the following headline indicators for schools serving students in grades K-8.

INDIANA GPS: SUMMARY OF K-8 HEADLINE INDICATORS

What Does This Mean for Students?

These headline indicators signal what matters most in the development of graduates prepared to succeed. By measuring improvement and achievement for each headline indicator, we are affirming the importance of these components as benchmarks that contribute to the lifelong success of each student. For K-8, the headline indicators focus on the establishment of the strong foundational knowledge and skills students need as they prepare for a successful transition to high school.
