

FAMOUS DOGS, HORSES, AND OTHER ANIMALS

Soldiers of the Civil War took their pets to the war and adopted others along the way. Officers also took their horses, many of them nearly as famous as their owners.

Sallie	Staffordshire bull terrier	11 th Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry
Jack	Bull terrier	102 nd Pennsylvania Infantry
Old Harvey	Bulldog	104 th Ohio
York	Setter	General Alexander Asboth's pet
Major	Mutt	10 th Maine
Calamity	Mutt	28 th Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry
Grace	Mutt	1 st Maryland Artillery
Traveller	Dog	Jefferson Davis's pet
Stonewall	Dog	Richmond Howitzers
Cincinnati	Horse	General Ulysses S. Grant
Methuselah	Horse	General Ulysses S. Grant
Randy	Horse	General Ulysses S. Grant
Fox	Horse	General Ulysses S. Grant
Jeff Davis	Horse	General Ulysses S. Grant
Kangaroo	Horse	General Ulysses S. Grant
Winchester	Horse	Colonel Philip Sheridan
Traveller	Horse	General Robert E. Lee
Little Sorrell	Horse	General Stonewall Jackson
Virginia	Horse	General JEB Stuart
Old Abe	Eagle	Company C, 8 th Regiment Wisconsin Volunteers
A hen	Laid a daily egg	Robert E. Lee
A pig named Jeff Davis		9 th Connecticut Infantry

A donkey	Tried to sleep wit the commanding officer	3 rd Louisiana
A tame bear		12 th Wisconsin Volunteers
A sheep named Dick	Eventually sold for $ to buy the men food	2 nd Rhode Island
A badger		26 th Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry
A camel named Douglas		43 rd Mississippi Infantry
Raccoons		12 th Wisconsin
Raccoons		104 th Pennsylvania

President Lincoln did not have a pet of his own in the White House. Instead, he left his dog Fido in Springfield in the care of a family named Rolls to await the Lincolns' return.